Manchester has long been recognised for its vibrant, exuberant culture, making this thriving city such an exciting place to live and work.

From fine dining restaurants to designer fashion retailers, Manchester has it all. Museums, art galleries and theatres are in abundance; the city has the highest number of theatre seats per head outside London.

Manchester attracts some of the biggest names in music and entertainment. It is home to the Manchester Arena, Europe's busiest indoor arena, plus many more first class concert venues. Manchester is also very much a city of sport, boasting world class football, cricket, rugby and cycling arenas.
